Volume 19 Issue 12

December 2022

Letter from the President

Ladies of the Brush

Well the end is here. Not only to the year but to our chapter. As of 1 January we will become the Palm Coast Decorative Artists. Your board will bring more information to you at a later date.

This will be my last newsletter as I am stepping away after 20 years on the board in one position or another. But you have not seen the last of me. I will remain an active member.

Noreen and her committee have been busy setting up our Christmas Party. It's a day we can look forward to just socializing and enjoying good food and drink. We will also be installing our new officers. You don't want to miss this.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you all.

Lee

Please keep Paula Tormey and her family in you prayers. Paula's husband John passed away on Monday.

Letter from the 1st Vice President

Hi Ladies –

Are you ready for the holidays yet? After painting Alise's 'Snowman with Lights' project, you should be well on the way and really beginning to get in the mood. Thanks, Alise, for this cute snowman. I'm sure we'll have him around for several years to come.

Next up is our Christmas Party to help you begin celebrating after a year's hard work of painting. The lead elf, Noreen, and all of her assistant elves have been busy preparing a very special day for all of us. Can't wait to see what they have come up with – but I just know it will be really special. Don't miss this event on December 3rd!

At our November meeting, the following 10 projects were chosen for our 2023 Workshops:

1. 'Hippity Hop', taught by Cindy Makowski
2. 'Nuts for Sammy', taught by Cindy Makowski
3. 'Relief', taught by Noreen Walker
4. 'Daisies', taught by Cheri Bergquist
5. 'Advent Sampler', taught by Cheri Bergquist
6. 'Welcome Fall', taught by Alise Duerr
7. 'Happy Holiday Gnome', taught by Alise Duerr
8. 'A Touch of Asia', taught by Ann Hedberg
9. 'Witchie Poo's Pumpkin', taught by Lee Fasnacht
10. 'Cherish Tree', taught by Lee Fasnacht

We are very fortunate to have Rosanne Pulchalski, MDA as our Seminar Artist in 2023. Two really beautiful and interesting Seminar projects were chosen: 1) 'Turkey Surprise' and 2) 'Misty Morning'.

The schedule for the Seminar and Workshops can be located on the calendar in this Newsletter. Be sure to mark them ALL on your calendar.

Our first Workshop of 2023 will be 'A Touch of Asia', taught by Ann Hedberg on January 14th. (Please note the date here!) This is a unique piece and Ann will be providing some special prep instructions at the Christmas Party.

In February, we'll be doing something different – scratch art. 'Hippity Hop' will be taught by Cindy Makowski. This is a cute little bunny that will bring a smile to everyone's face. And guess what! No advance prep is required.

We will begin taking registrations for the January & February Workshops, as well as the Seminar at the Christmas Party. Preparation instructions will be available at that time.

Palm Coast Decorative Painter Chapter Meeting Minutes –November 12 , 2022

Meeting called meeting to order at 9:08 by Ruth in Lee's absence.

Welcome to Bob Duerr, guest.

Vote to secede from National as of January 1, 2023 passed. Ruth explained that this will involve several changes (e.g. print materials, name, insurance). However, the Board has been in active communication with other chapters who have done the same and has ample guidance on proceeding.

Since we will not be covered under National's insurance, there is now an issue with food preparation done in Noreen's home and sold/served in the Women's Club. Lunches will not be served as of 1/2023.

List passed around for Christmas Party attendance and food donations. Club to provide pizza lunch today. Lunch money already paid will be returned.

Ruth has set up 2 voting stations to select workshops (28 submissions) and seminar for 2023. She previously sent out questionnaires & results. Members are asked to consider these preferences as they vote today. Included are contemporary art projects such as feather painting, zentangle and scratch art. Many projects will include extra supply/pattern fees.

Today's project is the last of the year.

No membership report in Lynn's absence.

Lana gave Treasurer's Report.

Maria conducting raffle today in Kathy's absence.

Breakfast items for January: Diane, Lana, Nedra, Maria.

Alise shared an impressive group of paintings for Show and Tell: acrylic swan, beginning water color, impressionistic flowers, ornaments and lighted scarecrow. She also showed an item on which a self-leveling varnish "soft touch" was used. Georgia also displayed a color pencil flower.

Meeting adjourned at 9:30 am.

Judy Hennenlotter

CHRISTMAS PARTY

Make sure that you're included in the combined SDP and PCDP Christmas Party on December 3 starting at 11 am. If you have not emailed Noreen (fwuscg1@gmail.com) about attending and what food you'll bring, please do so now.

2 hot entrees and beverages are being provided by the Clubs. An impressive variety of salads, appetizers, side dishes and desserts are planned. Ladies have signed up to bring bloody Mary's, mimosas and wine. Thanks in advance to those who have offered to set up.

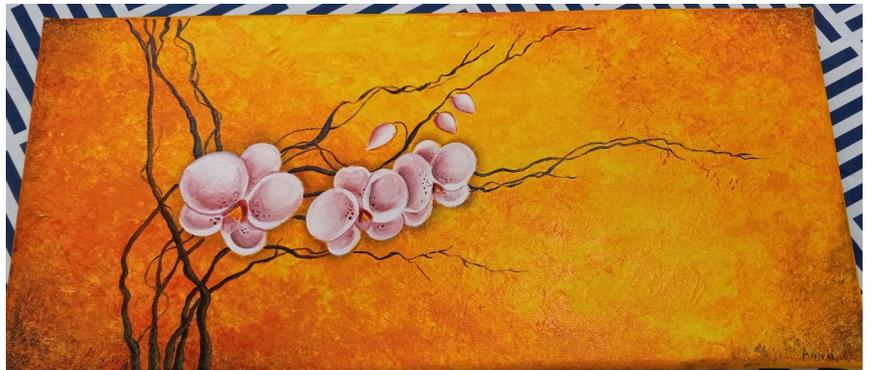

In addition to 2 favors, we WILL have a raffle. 2 very special items have been donated as well as a cash prize, hand-painted box and other items. So, if you do have something that you want to donate, it will be greatly appreciated and add to the fun.

All of our members deserve this good time. See you there!

Noreen

KIDS R FIRST

Ladies,

What a great year this has been for our Kids R First Project. Each month our newsletter has shown boxes painted by our members. I have been the Chair of this project since 2014 when I took over for Ginny Wiegand. It is has been my privilege and pleasure to be part of this community project.

Our biggest news is that Noreen Walker is our new Chair of the Kids R First Project. She is the perfect person for this job and she will take such good care of the kids. Please welcome her to this new post and be sure to keep painting those boxes for the kids.

Noreen and I delivered 51 boxes to the Guardian ad litem office on November 15th. We have painted and delivered to Guardian ad litem in excess of 150 boxes this year. The kids' party is December 2nd, so Noreen wanted to be sure there were plenty of boxes and filler items for the kids. As usual, our boxes were well received by the child advocates.

I hope you have a wonderful Christmas!

Lana
